$2.50 C. B. Corsets at 89c

The Ehrlich Corset Store (where experienced fitters are at your disposal every day in the week) make another wonderful offer for Friday, being nothing less than $2.50 C. B. in the Spirit Corsets at 89c. a pair.

Only 800 pairs of these world-famous Corsets—and when the women of New York hear of it these Corsets will not be here long.

These Corsets are sold below the regular price because of slight imperfections which you would not see at all if they were not pointed out to you. And even then they are so trivial that few women would not grab at them.

All made of Summer batiste in the good way the C.
B. people make all their Corsets—89c. a pair.

HERE'S A SIGN BOWERY IS DEAD

Lyon's Restaurant No Longer Able to Keep Up All-Night Service, and for First Time in 33 Years Shuts Up at 1 A. M.

Like Lyons has closed his restaurant last night. For the first time in thirty-three years the doors were locked and the candles drawn at 1 o'clock to-day and remained so until 1 o'clock.

At midnight a notice was posted that the Bowery had died and was waiting burial the next day. Lyons had done this would be the last notice given for the closure.

LITTLE GIRL IN A TRANCE

Child Fell in the Street Unconscious and All Efforts to Revive Her Have Failed—Mother Thinks Snowball Responsible.

Doctors in the Eastern District Hospital are mystified as to the cause of the condition of five-year-old Tessie McBride, who was removed to the hospital from her home, No. 32 Division plum from her home, yesterday afternoon. She appears to be in a trance.
An examination has failed to produce any evidence of injury or symptoms of poison.

The child was playing near her home yesterday afternoon when she suddenly collapsed and fell to the sidewalk unconscious. She was carried into the hospital by a woman who was passing at the time. Efforts were made to revive her, but all remedies failed. Finally
